38th Annual IMP Conference

Call For Papers

The conference will present a broad selection of papers primarily focused on interaction and business networks in changing business-to-business markets and networking for actors in local and international communities. On this occasion, the theme is: Interaction and networking for adaptation in a complex and challenging environment.

Important Dates

Deadline for Submission of Abstracts (maximum 2-pages): January 28th 2022.

The conference programme team will review all of the abstracts; acceptances will be sent out by late February.

If your abstract is accepted, you will be invited to submit an 8-page paper by April 1st 2022.

Paper Acceptance Notification: June 2, 2022.

Authors will receive the reviewers' comments and our goal is that all papers will receive two reviews. In order to reach this goal, we ask for your understanding that we expect everyone to participate in the review process. This increases both the quality of the conference and the level of engagement in the community.

Authors are expected to send in the revised version of their papers by June 24th, 2022.

Technical details about how your paper should look

Please pay attention to the following guidelines when you prepare your manuscript:

To facilitate the blind review process, remove ALL authors identifying information, including acknowledgements from the text, and document/file properties.

Manuscripts should be formatted for A4-sized paper.

Set the page margins to 1 inch (2.54 cm) all the way around.

For the body text use the Times New Roman font, size 12 pt., single line spacing.

Do not number the headings. Use capitals, Times New Roman font, size 12 pt., centered for main headings and small caps, Times New Roman font, size 12 pt., centered for subheadings.

Use Harvard-style formatting when citing literature in the text and at the end of the manuscript.

Upload your paper in a word file format.
